

The IEEE Power Electronics Society (PELS) is seeking new

Co - Editor in Chief (Co-EIC) for IEEE Transaction on Power Electronics (TPEL)

IEEE TPEL is accepting applications and nominations for an anticipated opening as Co-EIC. Co-EICs are senior editor positions in TPEL with duties that include, but are not limited to, supervising and directing Associate Editors, helping manage editorial decisions, and assisting the EIC to improve the general operation of TPEL. The 3-year term will begin in January 2022, with the possibility of renewal for 3 years more. However, training may begin in December 2021.

The deadline for receipt of all materials is 3 December 2021.

A. Please include the following information in a letter (< 1 page, < 500 words) containing:

1. Motivation and statement of willingness to become Co-Editor-in-Chief, which we estimate may take ~ 6hrs-8hrs average weekly workload
2. Prior services on Editorial Boards in IEEE
3. Technical Committee activities
4. Brief statement of research areas and types of papers comfortable to handle as an editor.

B. Include also a one or two-page resume/CV.

Interviews may be held with short listed candidates. More information about being Co-Editor-in-Chief can be obtained by contacting either

Professor Yaow-Ming Chen, TPEL Editor-in-Chief ntuymchen@ieee.org

Or

Professor Brad Lehman, PEELS Vice President for Products, lehman@ece.neu.edu

All application materials should be sent by email to: Mary Beth Schwartz, IEEE PEELS Editorial Administrative Assistant, marybeth.schwartz@ieee.org, by 3 December 2021.

(This is an open call to all qualified IEEE PEELS members. Feel free to contact and encourage colleagues to apply for the position.)

**PEELS welcomes and celebrates talent from all backgrounds and perspectives. Our success is directly correlated to our people, and we believe our team should reflect the diversity of the contributors we partner with. As an organization, we strive to foster an inclusive, diverse environment where we all work towards a common goal.*
