- PELS will also see large surplus in 2020 will transfer money to the IEEE Foundation 250 k for supporting Empower Billion Lives 2.0

- IEEE Xplore strong in 2020 but can suffer in 2021 as companies can not afford the subscription might have financial implication for PELS in 2021 but hard to predict PELS has significant income here
- IEEE memberships dropped in 202 especially students same for PELS make initiatives to recover drop in 2021

VP Products Report

Brad Lehman

Excellent – journals and magazines

IF, $(1.5M-2020), downloads, quality, fast publication OJPEL success; New Digital/video abstracts in TPEL,

Digital offerings/webinars/conferences are doing well and expanding: Many new initiatives:

- Expanding short video tutorials (K. Kim), full on-line courses (M. Liserre), Reviews of existing videos (P. Enjeti / A. Banerjee), 35 volunteers already
- Great member benefit

• New Products NEWSLETTER, Prize papers announced in our Transactions

Impact of Covid -19

- Delays in initiatives to expand i) social media ii) web presence but restarting now
- Impact factors will drop due to conferences (and papers) canceled in 2020 - but rankings should remain the same
- Overall submission to journals seems unaffected by Covid so far: actually a rise in submissions so far this year...
- Other Future Risks: 2021 Magazine advertising revenue may drop (unknown); IEEE always may change reimbursement formula for each downloaded paper.

VP for Global Relations

Mario Pacas

- Due to covid19 most of the activities were frozen
- Task force for the definition of the mission and further activities was established
- The results of the discussions were considered in Five-year Strategic Plan
- Aim: each member of a group of volunteers approaches the region of the world he or she knows best and where real opportunities are seen.
